What Gifts do we have?

Well done, good and faithful servant. (Matthew 25:21)

Glory be to the Father,
and to the Son,
and to the Holy Spirit:
as it was in the beginning,
is now, and ever shall be,
world without end.Amen

This morning, we pray together the words of the Glory Be, giving thanks to God for everything he does and is

How can we us our Gifts in our community of learners, believers and friends this week?

"I praise you, for I am fearfully and wonderfully made." (Psalm 139:14)

Sit quietly and think about your God-given gifts and talents.
–listening, maths, being a good friend,football, music, art, reading, handwriting, kindness, cooking, joy, running, caring, gaming etc

Doodle your name on paper. Inside the letters write down some of the many talents you have been given. Use these questions to help you identify your gifts:

- What do you enjoy doing?
- What makes you feel you're doing a good job with something?
- What activities do you choose when you have free time?
- What character traits are you complimented on?
- What do people say they like or admire about you?

As you place your name around the candle,
thank God for all your gifts and talents.

How can we encourage each others gifts?

Use the Quiet Mind Script (on next slide and in resources) to help pupils enter a prayerful time of silence.

Lord Jesus,

Make me a channel of your peace, Where there is hatred let me bring your love.

Help me to share with gentleness the hope and love in my heart.

‘Well done, you good and faithful servant!’ said his master. ‘You have been faithful in managing small amounts, so I will put you in charge of large amounts. Come on in and share my happiness!’

Read the scripture slowly and prayerfully. Listen for what God is speaking to you.

Focus on a word or phrase that strikes you. Repeat the word or phrase to yourself.

Pray in response to what you've meditated on.

Think of what action you can do this week to live out what you have heard.

Gospel : Matthew 25:14–30

At that time: Jesus told his disciples this parable, 'The kingdom of heaven will be like a man going on a journey, who called his servants and entrusted to them his property. To one he gave five talents, to another two, to another one, to each according to his ability. Then he went away. He who had received the five talents went at once and traded with them, and he made five talents more. So also he who had the two talents made two talents more. But he who had received the one talent went and dug in the ground and hid his master's money.
'Now after a long time the master of those servants came and settled accounts with them. And he who had received the five talents came forward, bringing five talents more, saying, "Master, you delivered to me five talents; here, I have made five talents more." His master said to him, "Well done, good and faithful servant. You have been faithful over a little; I will set you over much. Enter into the joy of your master."
