But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship with one another
1 John 1:7

October is a month dedicated to the Holy Rosary, through the month we will begin each week following a decade of the rosary.

BE STILL

In our worship this morning we spend time in sacred silence, offering our thoughts to God, being still and knowing that he is God

Visio Divina

Pray: Speak to God in your heart about what you have noticed. Ask what He might be saying to you through the image.

This week we are thinking about invitation

As Jesus was walking beside the Sea of Galilee, he saw two brothers, Simon called Peter and his brother Andrew. They were casting a net into the lake, for they were fishermen. 'Come, follow me,' Jesus said, 'and I will send you out to fish for people.' At once they left their nets and followed him.

We pray the prayer of St Richard of Chichester inviting us to follow God each day

Thanks be to thee, my Lord Jesus Christ,
for all the benefits which thou hast given me,
for all the pains and insults which thou hast borne for me.
O most merciful redeemer, friend and brother,
may I know thee more clearly,
love thee more dearly,
and follow thee more nearly,
day by day.
Amen.

Are we listening to God's invitation to be part of our lives?

"Go therefore to the main roads and invite to the wedding feast as many as you find."

This morning, we will complete a form of reflection called Lectio Divina, where we simply allow God's word to speak to us. The passage will be read three times.

First time (Lectio): Listen for a word or phrase that stands out.
Second time (Meditatio): Reflect — Why might this speak to you as you begin the year?
Third time (Oratio/Contemplatio): Offer a silent prayer to God.

1) What word stands out?

2) What is it saying to you

3) Offer a prayer to God

Gospel : Matthew 22:1-14

At that time: Jesus again spoke to the chief priests and the elders of the people, in parables, saying, 'The kingdom of heaven may be compared to a king who gave a wedding feast for his son, and sent his servants to call those who were invited to the wedding feast, but they would not come.
Again he sent other servants, saying, "Tell those who are invited, 'See, I have prepared my dinner, my oxen and my fat calves have been slaughtered, and everything is ready. Come to the wedding feast.'" But they paid no attention and went off, one to his farm, another to his business, while the rest seized his servants, treated them shamefully, and killed them.
The king was angry, and he sent his troops and destroyed those murderers and burned their city. Then he said to his servants, "The wedding feast is ready, but those invited were not worthy. Go therefore to the main roads and invite to the wedding feast as many as you find." And those servants went out into the roads and gathered all whom they found, both bad and good. So the wedding hall was filled with guests.

WORD

Lord, we thank You for the insights and revelations You have shared with us during this Lectio Divina. We leave this space with hearts brimming with gratitude, ready to carry Your Word into the world. May we be living testimonies of Your grace. In Your name, we pray. Amen.
