Listen to this piece of music called Count Every Blessing
As you listen to this song, reflect on the good things you have in life.

How can we share these good things with others?

I urge, then, first of all, that petitions, prayers, intercession and thanksgiving be made for all people 1 Timothy 2:1

One way we can all serve others is through prayer,

*Spend a few minutes
now giving that service.*

Let us not become weary in doing good, for at the proper time we will reap a harvest if we do not give up.

Galatians 6:9

The scorched earth, and all those who hunger cry out to the Lord:

All: Journey with us, O God, and pour out your mercy upon us.

Leader: Hand in hand, we plant seeds, water crops, protect shoots as they grow. Together, we pray:

All: Journey with us, O God, and pour out your mercy upon us.

Leader: The dry land rejoices, the people sing for joy as life blooms and the harvest is gathered. In hope of this vision, we pray:

All: Journey with us, O God, and pour out your mercy upon us like the morning dew, so that together we may build a brighter future, a future of plenty for all.

Leader: We ask this through Christ Our Lord, Amen.

And let us not be weary in well doing:
for in due season we shall reap,
if we faint not.

Galatians 6:9

How can we continue to do good this week?

Gospel: Luke 12:13-21

Someone in the crowd said to him, 'Teacher, tell my brother to divide the family inheritance with me.' But he said to him, 'Friend, who set me to be a judge or arbitrator over you?' And he said to them, 'Take care! Be on your guard against all kinds of greed; for one's life does not consist in the abundance of possessions.'

Then he told them a parable: 'The land of a rich man produced abundantly. And he thought to himself, "What should I do, for I have no place to store my crops?" Then he said, "I will do this: I will pull down my barns and build larger ones, and there I will store all my grain and my goods. And I will say to my soul, Soul, you have ample goods laid up for many years; relax, eat, drink, be merry." But God said to him, "You fool! This very night your life is being demanded of you. And the things you have prepared, whose will they be?" So it is with those who store up treasures for themselves but are not rich towards God.'

At harvest we think of gathering the gifts we have to provide to others.

Think of a gift that you could use for others. On the food outline you have been given write a word that represents your gift and place it on the sacred space in your room, offering it to be shared with others.
