WE GATHER

In the name of the Father, Son and Holy Spirit

WE LISTEN

As we begin, think about what remembrance means to you personally — is it about gratitude, loss, justice, or peace?
Listen to this piece of music called “Remembrance” in silence.
Spend time reflecting on the past, and where you are today

WE RESPOND

GO FORTH

What is it important the we remember? What do we need to remember this week?

help pupils
enter a prayerful time
of silence.

BE STILL

Silence...

Please listen to the song from the children of service men and women

How does remembrance look different for those directly affected by war compared to the general public?

Gospel: Mark 12:38-44

Jesus sat down opposite the place where the offerings were put and watched the crowd putting their money into the temple treasury. Many rich people threw in large amounts. But a poor widow came and put in two very small copper coins, worth only a few cents.

Calling his disciples to him, Jesus said, "Truly I tell you, this poor widow has put more into the treasury than all the others. They all gave out of their wealth; but she, out of her poverty, put in everything—all she had to live on."

Today, we remember those who gave their very lives for others, thankful for their service and sacrifice

What does sacrifice look like today?

Is giving time, attention, or empathy as valuable as giving money?

MOUNT ST JOSEPH
GOSPEL VALUES

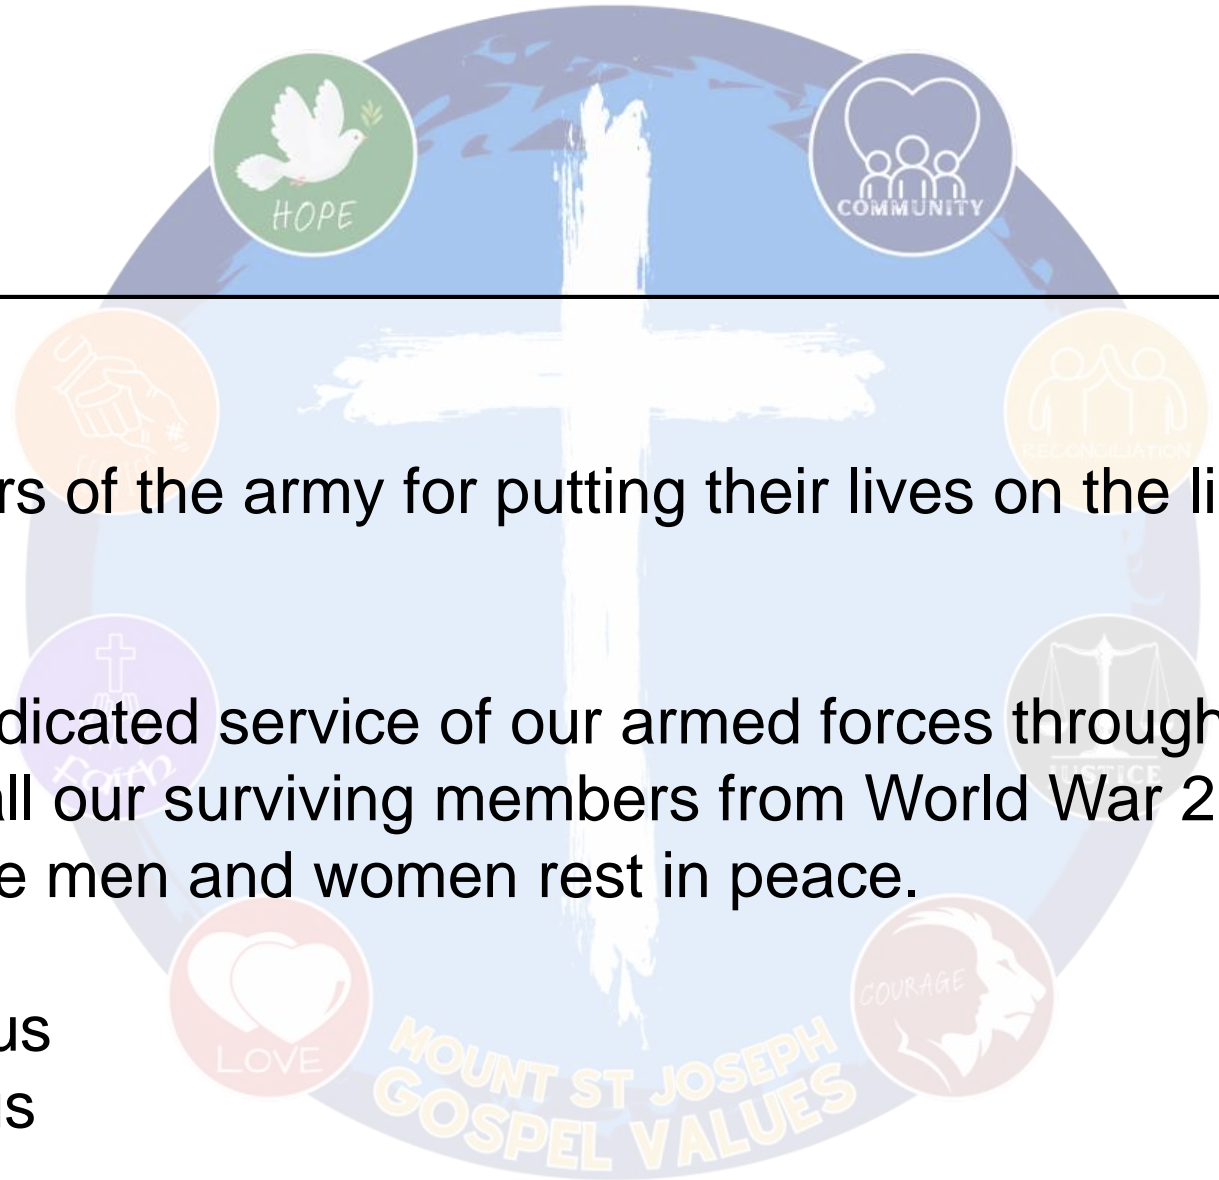

Dear lord,

We thank the members of the army for putting their lives on the line for us.

We pray for all the dedicated service of our armed forces throughout the generations and all our surviving members from World War 2 please allow our brave men and women rest in peace.

St Joseph – Pray for us
St Teresa – Pray for us
Amen

For this reason, ever since I heard about your faith in the Lord Jesus and your love for all God's people, I have not stopped giving thanks for you, remembering you in my prayers.

Ephesians 1:15-16

As we follow the five finger prayer, who do we need to remember?

Who is hardest to pray for or remember? Why might that be important?

How can we continue to remember and give thanks?

Whoever loves discipline loves knowledge, but whoever hates correction is stupid.

Proverbs 12:1

Holy God, the protector of all who trust in you: Grant to the Armed Forces and all who seek you, the assurance of your presence, the knowledge of your love, and the guidance of your spirit

Lord, hear us.

Lord, graciously hear us.

Be with all medics and chaplains, and all who support the suffering: give them wisdom and skill, sympathy and patience.

Lord, hear us.

Lord, graciously hear us.

Be with those serving in warzones around the world. We pray for those in Russia, Ukraine, Palestine and Israel, that they may know peace

Lord, hear us.

Lord, graciously hear us.

What situations in the world need our prayer this week?

Jesus Cleanses the Temple

¹³ The Passover of the Jews was at hand, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem. ¹⁴ In the temple he found those who were selling oxen and sheep and pigeons, and the money-changers sitting there. ¹⁵ And making a whip of cords, he drove them all out of the temple, with the sheep and oxen. And he poured out the coins of the money-changers and overturned their tables. ¹⁶ And he told those who sold the pigeons, "Take these things away; do not make my Father's house a house of trade." ¹⁷ His disciples remembered that it was written, "Zeal for your house will consume me."

¹⁸ So the Jews said to him, "What sign do you show us for doing these things?" ¹⁹ Jesus answered them, "Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up." ²⁰ The Jews then said, "It has taken forty-six years to build this temple,^[a] and will you raise it up in three days?" ²¹ But he was speaking about the temple of his body. ²² When therefore he was raised from the dead, his disciples remembered that he had said this, and they believed the Scripture and the word that Jesus had spoken.

What can we learn from the story of St Sebastian that we can follow today?
