How can you make someone feel included today?

1 Peter 4: 9-10

“Be hospitable to one another without complaining. Like good stewards of the manifold grace of God, serve one another with whatever gift each of you has received.”

In this verse, we can understand that solidarity is deeply connected to sacredness.

Think about what specific steps can people take to include others in activities

Dear God
Help us make new friends and act in kindness to everyone as you have shown to us, let people who are isolated find themselves in the arms of God. Let us learn in a community of learners, believers, and friends.

Let us also remember in solidarity those who lost their lives in Australia this weekend as we say together:

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord,
and let Your perpetual light shine upon them.
May their souls and the souls of all the faithful departed rest in peace.
Amen.

Tuesday- scavenger hunt

How can we make choices that help everyone, not just ourselves?

Just as a body, though one, has many parts, but all its many parts form one body, so it is with Christ.
For we were all baptised by one Spirit so as to form one body.
Even so the body is not made up of one part but of many. God has put the body together, so that there should be no division in the body, but that its parts should have equal concern for each other.
If one part suffers, every part suffers with it;
if one part is honoured, every part rejoices with it.

Why is it important to think about other people when we make decisions?

What are some small things we can do at school that make life better for everyone?

Why should we help someone even if we don't know them very well?

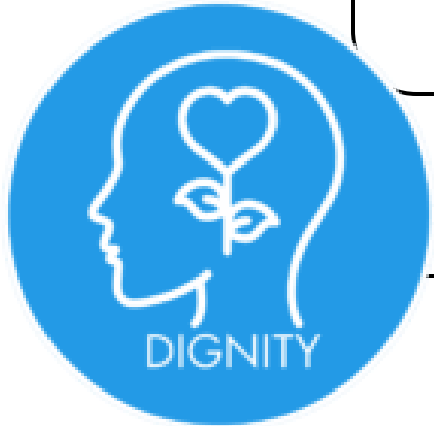

Dear God,
thank You for the chance to learn, grow, and be part of this school community.
Help us remember that every person here is important and deserves kindness and respect. Teach us to think about how our choices affect others, and to work together so our school becomes a safe and caring place for everyone. Give us open hearts to notice when someone needs our help. May we always try to support, understand, and encourage one another, so that our actions bring peace, hope, and goodness to our school and to the world.
Amen.

Hoodies day on Friday

on Friday, you can wear your hoodie or Christmas jumper over your uniform.

What do you think when you hear the word: 'Job'

Matthew 7:7

"Ask, and it will be given to you; seek, and you will find; knock, and the door will be opened to you".

Nowadays, our world is easy, and everything is in a flick of a switch. You may find it easy to just order things, but do you ever think about who makes them?

In this world, we live in a society where we only care about buying the next shoes or fidgets, yet we don't think a second about the people that work 10 'til 11 or even longer.

This December, think about the people that working so hard to give you the best present with love.

Let's spend a moment offering our intentions in silence

In the name of the Father, Son and Holy Spirit, amen.

As a community of learners, believers, and friends, we recognise that God has given us the world as a gift. Stewardship reminds us that how we treat creation reflects who we are and what we believe.

As learners, we grow in understanding how our actions affect the world.

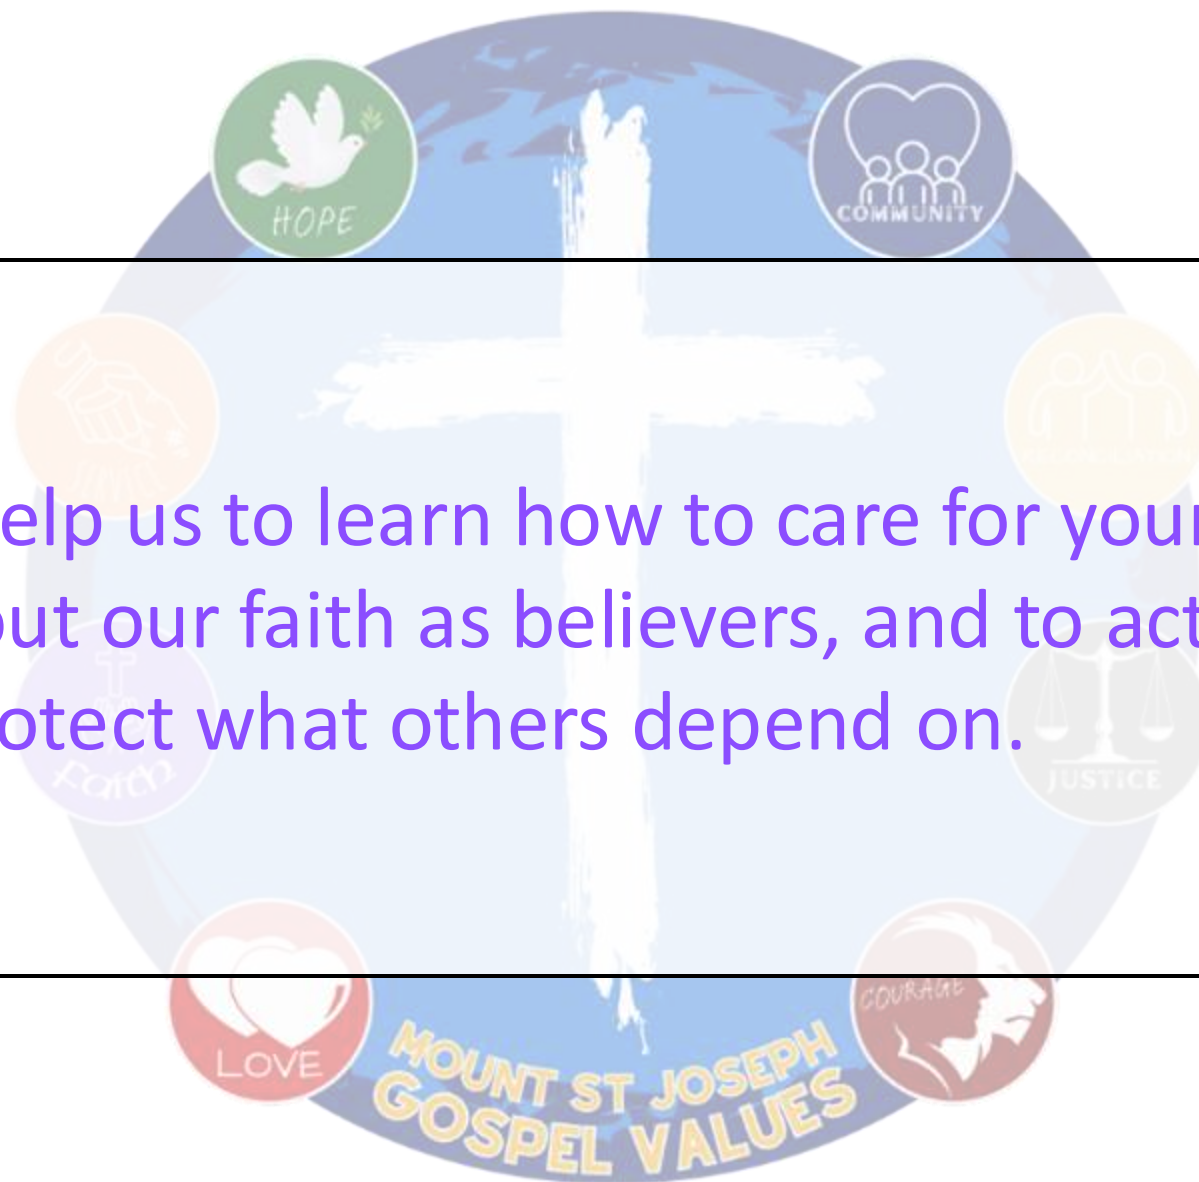

As believers, we trust that creation comes from God.

As friends, we care for the environment so others can enjoy it now and in the future.

Creator God, help us to learn how to care for your world, to live out our faith as believers, and to act as friends who protect what others depend on.

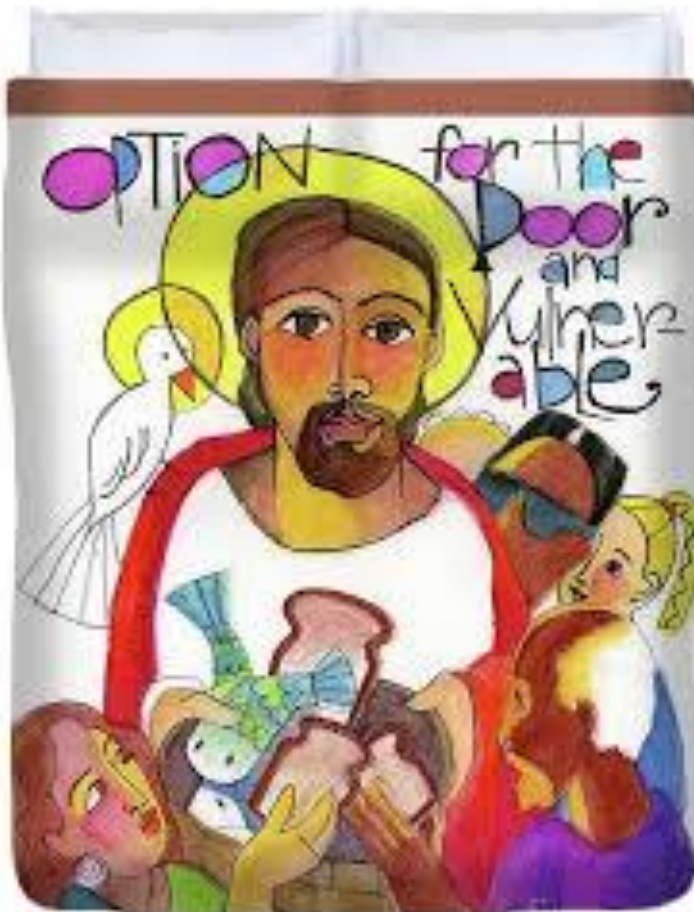

In the name of the Father, Son and Holy Spirit, amen.
As a community of learners, believers, and friends, we are called to notice those who struggle and to respond with compassion and justice.

Jesus teaches us that how we treat the poorest and weakest people is how we treat him. Our choices matter.

Silent reflection:

Think about someone in the world or in our community who might be struggling — with poverty, loneliness, or injustice.

God of justice and compassion,
open our eyes to see those in need.
Open our hearts to care,
and our hands to act with love.
Amen.
