Unity

What is this image showing?

I appeal to you, brothers by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that all of you agree, and that there be no divisions among you, but that you be united in the same mind and the same judgment.

1 Corinthians 1:10

What ways can we support each other this week?

How can we show that we are united?

Our School Prayer

LORD, make me a better person, more considerate to others, more honest with myself, more faithful to you.

Make me generous enough to want sincerely to do your will whatever it may be.

Help me to find my true vocation in life, and grant that through it I may find happiness myself and bring happiness to others.

And above all these put on love, which binds everything together in perfect harmony.

Colossians 3:14

*On simple way of showing this love is
to pray for others,
use the 5 finger
prayer to spend
some time in prayer*

Continue to pray for others in our world and pray for unity

COURAGE

In the name of the Father, Son and Holy Spirit

Let's take a moment to really listen to the Gospel and reflect on what God is saying, personally, to us.

- Still quietly, close your eyes if you like, and listen to the Gospel being read very slowly.
- Then listen as it's read again.
- Which words or phrases stand out to you?
- What do these words or phrases mean in your life?
- You may like to use the thinking sheet on the next slide to help you
- to reflect on how God is speaking to you today.

WE LISTEN

On the third day there was a wedding at Cana in Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there. Jesus also was invited to the wedding with his disciples. When the wine ran out, the mother of Jesus said to him, “They have no wine.” And Jesus said to her, “Woman, what does this have to do with me? My hour has not yet come.” His mother said to the servants, “Do whatever he tells you.”

Now there were six stone water jars there for the Jewish rites of purification, each holding twenty or thirty gallons. Jesus said to the servants, “Fill the jars with water.” And they filled them up to the brim. And he said to them, “Now draw some out and take it to the master of the feast.” So they took it. When the master of the feast tasted the water now become wine, and did not know where it came from (though the servants who had drawn the water knew), the master of the feast called the bridegroom and said to him, “Everyone serves the good wine first, and when people have drunk freely, then the poor wine. But you have kept the good wine until now.” This, the first of his signs, Jesus did at Cana in Galilee, and manifested his glory. And his disciples believed in him.

5. Action - What can I do now to help others?

4. Contemplation - How might this text change my heart and mind?

3. Prayer - What can I say to God in response?

1. Reading - What is the text saying that we can all understand? What's happening?

2. Meditation - What does the text say to me, today, and in my life?

There was a wedding at Cana in Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there. Jesus also was invited to the wedding with his disciples. When the wine ran out, the mother of Jesus said to him, 'They have no wine.' And Jesus said to her, 'Woman, what does this have to do with me? My hour has not yet come.' His mother said to the servants, 'Do whatever he tells you.'

Now there were six stone water jars there for the Jewish rites of purification, each holding seventy or one hundred litres. Jesus said to the servants, 'Fill the jars with water.' And they filled them up to the brim. And he said to them, 'Now draw some out and take it to the master of the feast.' So they took it. When the master of the feast tasted the water now become wine, and did not know where it came from (though the servants who had drawn the water knew), the master of the feast called the bridegroom and said to him, 'Everyone serves the good wine first, and when people have drunk freely, then the poor wine. But you have kept the good wine until now.'

This, the first of his signs, Jesus did at Cana in Galilee and manifested his glory. And his disciples believed in him.

Jesus, you cared and helped the wedding party.
Care for me too.
Help me to enjoy life.
Help me to make sure other people can enjoy life too.
Amen.

Think about the words of the hymn.

Are there any people you are separated from – in your family, school
or in the wider world?
As you listen, reflect on how you might put right
any divisions.
Ask Jesus to help you.

Christ, have mercy on us.
Come and mend any separations in our lives.
Help us to put right any divisions
so that we might all live in unity.
Amen
