Events this week

Remember we are in the season of Lent, a time of prayer, almsgiving and fasting. The chapel is open during break/lunch for people wanting space for reflection

This week we reflect on change — how God changes hearts, communities, and the world.

In the name of the Father,
the Son and the Holy Spirit, Amen

I will give you a new heart, and a new spirit I will put within you. Ezekiel 36:26

LOVE

MOUNT ST JOSEPH
GOSPEL VALUES

Thank you, Lord, that you love us and hear us when we pray
We think today of those in the world currently suffering due to conflicts.

Leader: For countries experiencing war and violence,

Students: Lord, bring change and peace.

Leader: For leaders making difficult decisions,

Students: Lord, guide them in justice.

Leader: For families displaced or suffering,

Students: Lord, protect and comfort them.

Leader: For our own school community,

Students: Help us be peacemakers.

Hear us and help those in need Lord
Bring your peace throughout the world, and help us all to be peacemakers each day

In the name of the Father, Son and Holy Spirit

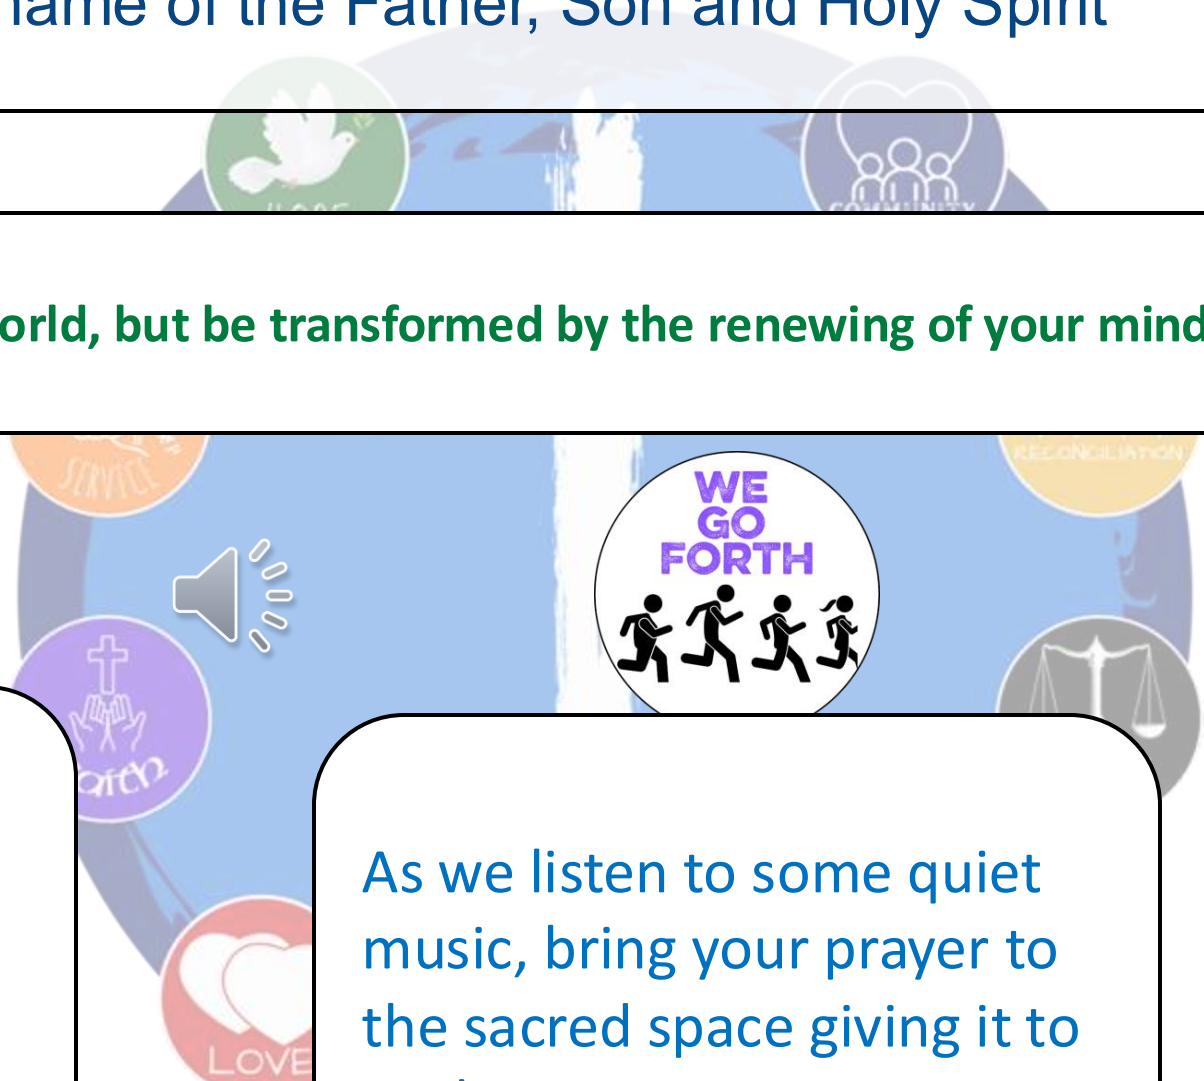

Do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind.

On your template write down:
One change you hope to see in the world (e.g., peace, equality, justice).
One change you can make personally.

As we listen to some quiet music, bring your prayer to the sacred space giving it to God.

The world at the moment can feel unsettled and divided, we continue to pray for peace this day.
In the name of the Father, Son and Holy Spirit

WE LISTEN

Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you... Do not let your hearts be troubled.
John 14:27

RESPOND

As you listen to the song, reflect on how we can change to see God's peace in our lives

FORTH

Lord, we pray that you bring peace into both the world and our lives, help it to be well with our souls, Amen

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit

And he was transfigured before them, and his face shone like the sun, and his clothes became white as light.

Gospel

Matthew 17:1-9

At that time: Jesus took with him Peter and James and John his brother, and led them up a high mountain by themselves. And he was transfigured before them, and his face shone like the sun, and his clothes became white as light. And behold, there appeared to them Moses and Elijah, talking with him. And Peter said to Jesus, 'Lord, it is good that we are here. If you wish, I will make three tents here, one for you and one for Moses and one for Elijah.' He was still speaking when, behold, a bright cloud overshadowed them, and a voice from the cloud said, 'This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased; listen to him.' When the disciples heard this, they fell on their faces and were terrified. But Jesus came and touched them, saying, 'Rise, and have no fear.' And when they lifted up their eyes, they saw no one, but Jesus only. And as they were coming down the mountain, Jesus commanded them, 'Tell no one the vision, until the Son of Man is raised from the dead.'

The disciples saw Jesus differently, changed in light and glory.

Where in our world do we need to see with new eyes?

Where do conflict, division, or violence need God's light?

Lord, shine your light where there is war.
Shine your light where there is hatred.
Shine your light in our school and in our hearts.

The disciples came down the mountain changed.
May we leave this space changed — choosing to bring light instead of division, peace instead of anger, hope instead of fear.
