Holy Week

This week we enter the final week of lent, Holy Week. As we think on Jesus' final journey to the cross, please come and visit the chapel to spend some time in prayer

In the Name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit

Today we begin Holy Week by remembering Palm Sunday — the day Jesus entered Jerusalem.

Let us place ourselves in that moment, ready to welcome God into our own lives.

God, as we enter Holy Week, help us to walk with You in faith, hope and love.

Amen

COMMUNITY

A very large crowd spread their cloaks on the road... The crowds shouted, 'Hosanna to the Son of David!'
Matthew 21:8–9

Imagine the scene: crowds cheering... children waving branches... people shouting with joy. Yet the same crowd that welcomed Jesus would later reject Him.

Palm Sunday reminds us that it's easy to praise God when things feel good — but harder to stay close to Him when life is difficult.

Think for a moment: When do I welcome God into my life? When do I push Him away? What would I have shouted if I had been there that day?

As we begin Holy Week, may we follow our faith more closely.
Amen

WE GATHER

Look at the artwork on the next slide. What do you see? Don't rush. Notice the colours, the light, and the shadows.

- How is colour drawing your attention?
- What are the expressions on the faces of the crowd? Can you imagine their joy and their amazement?
- What gives you this type of joy?
- Take time to think about what is Lazarus thinking and feeling. How is he looking at Jesus?

Listen for God's voice in the quiet. Visio Divina is about letting God speak through what you see.

Be open to God's message, even if it surprises you.

Let God use this painting to speak to your heart.

Father, if You are willing, take this cup from me; yet not my will but Yours be done.

BE STILL

- When have I been afraid or overwhelmed?
- Where do I need God's strength?
- Can I pray Jesus' words: "Your will be done"?
