How can we show compassion?

But if we walk in the light as He is in the light, we have fellowship with one another 1 John 1:7

LORD, make me a better person, more considerate to others, more honest with myself, more faithful to you. Make me generous enough to want sincerely to do your will whatever it may be. Help me to find my true vocation in life, and grant that through it I may find happiness myself and bring happiness to others. Amen

How does compassion bring happiness to others?

In the name of the Father, Son and Holy Spirit

Sometimes we feel lost and anxious, a bit like sheep without a shepherd. Take time today to remember that God has compassion for each one of us. God suffers with us if we suffer.

Ask God to be with you in any difficulties you might be experiencing.

Thank God for always being with you.

Trust God to look after you.

The Lord is gracious and merciful, slow to anger and abounding in steadfast love. The Lord is good to all,
and his mercy is over all that he has made.

Praying in colour – listen to quiet music as you make a creative prayer

1) Write your name for God on a piece of paper. Draw a shape around it or just start to doodle. Let your pen take you for a walk. This drawing becomes a prayer space.

2) Add marks and shapes. Ask God to be part of your prayer time. If words come to you, pray them; if not, rest in the silence. Think of each stroke as a nonverbal prayer.

3) To pray for a person, write their name somewhere else on the page. Draw around the name. Add colour. Keep drawing as you give the person to God's care.

4) Add other people to your drawing. Think of each stroke of your pen as a prayer for them. Take a breath or say "Amen" between each person.

Place your prayer on the sacred space – giving it to God

Gospel : Matthew 9:36 – 10:8

At that time: When Jesus saw the crowds, he had compassion for them, because they were harassed and helpless, like sheep without a shepherd. Then he said to his disciples, 'The harvest is plentiful, but the labourers are few; therefore pray earnestly to the Lord of the harvest to send out labourers into his harvest.' And he called to him his twelve disciples and gave them authority over unclean spirits, to cast them out, and to heal every disease and every affliction. The names of the twelve apostles are these: first, Simon, who is called Peter, and Andrew his brother; James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother; Philip and Bartholomew; Thomas and Matthew the tax collector; James the son of Alphaeus, and Thaddaeus; Simon the Zealot, and Judas Iscariot, who betrayed him. These twelve Jesus sent out, instructing them, 'Go nowhere among the Gentiles and enter no town of the Samaritans, but go rather to the lost sheep of the house of Israel. And proclaim as you go, saying, "The kingdom of heaven is at hand." Heal the sick, raise the dead, cleanse lepers, cast out demons. You received without paying; give without pay.'

WE RESPOND

Our theme this week is compassion. Are we compassionate? Are our eyes and ears open to notice when people are in need? Do we recognise when others are 'worried and helpless'? How often do we turn to God in prayer when we, or those we know, need help? Do we pray for religious leaders to guide us? And when we feel sorry that people are in need, what do we do about it? The disciples shared love in practical ways and in doing so brought people to God. How will we show love and care to the people we meet, especially those who are in need? How far do we let compassion lead our actions?

GO FORTH

Lord, we pray for a compassionate heart.
Help us to be more understanding towards others.
Let us see the world through the eyes of those who are suffering and be moved to action.
May our compassion lead us to help
and support those in need. Amen.
